

MISSION	Managing Complex Enterprise Transformations KAPAX Solutions is a professional services and information technology firm that helps government agencies manage complex enterprise transformations by efficiently translating strategies into action. These programs often involve dozens of system integrators. For major program initiatives that involve agency Director or congressional oversight, both government and Primes will engage KAPAX to facilitate, orchestrate, and manage programs as a bridge between government policy and industry execution. The government reaches out to KAPAX when they need strong change-management in addition to help managing the complex relationships between government employees and defense contractors. KAPAX teams with prime contractors looking for competitive advantage during acquisition. Since 2012, KAPAX has served as a bridge between government and industry, supporting integration of more than 200 mission critical systems, impacting more than 8,000 government employees, impacting more than $1 Billion in acquisition costs.
